The 2023 Premium Book Dedication

Betty Wilbur

My Mom, Betty, and the Goshen Fair were always in our home growing up. From her pride and joy The Flower Department, to all the people and of course the treats.

In early years I remember her bringing milk bottles back and forth and of course scrubbed, never complaining. She could be seen behind the fence and flowers always with a smile.

Her favorite treats were an ice cream sundae and a weekend never went by without an apple crisp with all the toppings.

The fondest memory is the yearly carousel ride. She never missed one, from my brother and I, to grandchildren and followed by great-grandchildren. Those were her cherished memories and ours.

A Goshen Fair member who will be missed by all!

— Sue Hunt

½ teaspoon King Arthur Pure Vanilla Extract	2 cups zucchini, grated or finely chopped
1 teaspoon baking powder	1 cup walnuts, chopped
1 teaspoon baking soda	½ to 1 cup raisins or currants

2023 State Baking Contests

Rules

Each year The Association of Connecticut Fairs sponsors baking contests open to the public at participating member fairs. There are separate contests for Junior and Adult divisions, each with a specific recipe. A Two-Crusted Apple Pie Baking contest is also held.

Who May Enter: The contests at each participating member fair are open to all men, women and juniors who are residents of Connecticut. Commercial, industrial or professional bakers are not eligible. Divisions: Juniors (ages 7 to 15 as of July 1) and Adult.

How to Enter: Any Connecticut resident entering a contest at any participating member fair is automatically entered and competing in the local contest. Contestants may enter the contest at as many fairs as they wish until they win first prize. They will then represent that fair at the state baking contest. Please submit entries to both the local and state contest on disposable plates. The Association of Connecticut Fairs and the member fairs are not responsible for the return of plates, trays or containers.

Judging: Judging will be based on appearance, flavor and texture. The Association of Connecticut Fairs will furnish judges' score sheets to each fair and the contestant will receive these sheets at the end of the contest. Additions, deletions or substitutions in the recipe are not permitted and will result in disqualification. All decisions of the judges are final.

Local Contest: The winner of the local contest will receive a blue ribbon from the Association of Connecticut Fairs and will then become eligible to submit their entry at the state contest. In the event that only one entry is received at the local contest and that entry is worthy of first prize, that entry must be awarded the first place ribbon.

State Contest: The state contest is held as part of the Fall Meeting and Convention of the Association of Connecticut Fairs. Entries for the state contest are accepted from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. on the day of the judging (contact your local fair or visit www.ctagfairs.org for the date and location). Judging begins at 10:00 a.m. Contest winners are announced at the Fall Meeting. Each fair is responsible for contacting their contest winner and providing them with information. The Association of Connecticut Fairs does not contact individual fairs or contest winners in regards to contest and banquet reservations nor does the Association of Connecticut Fairs cover the costs of attending the awards banquet. No banquet reservations for contest winners will be accepted at the door.

2023 Adult State Baking Contest

Pane Bianco

Dough

3 cups King Arthur All-Purpose flour ½ cup milk, lukewarm
2 teaspoons instant yeast ¼ cup water, lukewarm
1¼ teaspoons salt 3 tablespoons olive oil
1 large egg

Filling

½ cup shredded Fontina cheese 3 garlic cloves, peeled and minced
¼ cup shredded Parmesan cheese 1½ tablespoons dried basil
½ cup oil-packed sun-dried tomatoes

- To make the dough: Measure the flour and gently spoon it into a cup, then sweep off any excess. Combine all of the dough ingredients in a bowl, then mix and knead to make a smooth, very soft dough.
- Place the dough in a lightly greased bowl, cover, and let it rise until it's doubled in size, about 45 to 60 minutes.
- Meanwhile, thoroughly drain the tomatoes, patting them dry. Use kitchen shears or a sharp knife to cut them into smaller bits.
- Place the dough on a lightly floured surface and pat or roll into a 22" x 8½" rectangle, deflating it slightly. Spread with the cheese, tomatoes, garlic, and basil.
- Starting with one long edge, roll the dough into a log the long way. Pinch the edges to seal. Place the log seam-side down on a lightly greased or parchment-lined baking sheet.
- Using kitchen shears, start ½" from one end and cut the log lengthwise down the center about 1" deep, to within ½" of the other end.
- Keeping the cut side up, form an "S" shape. Tuck both ends under the center of the "S" to form a "figure 8;" pinch the ends together to seal. When shaping the loaf, tuck any larger pieces of tomato or basil down into the dough (to avoid char).
- Cover and let rise in a warm place until double, 45 to 60 minutes.
- While the loaf is rising, preheat the oven to 350°F.
- Uncover the bread, and bake it for 35 to 40 minutes, tenting it with foil after 20 to 25 minutes to prevent over-browning.
- Remove the bread from the oven and transfer it to a rack to cool.

Submit Pane Bianco on foil-covered cardboard no wider than one-inch from each side.

Enter as Dept. O, Class 127.

Goshen residents only – Chocolate Porcupine

- | | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1¾ cup cocoa | 1 lb. butter |
| ⅔ cup boiling water | 1 cup sifted powdered sugar |
| 1½ cups all-purpose flour | 1 to 2 egg whites |
| 1 tsp. baking soda | 1 tsp. vanilla |
| ½ tsp. baking powder | |
| ¼ tsp. salt | |
| ½ cup butter | |
| 1½ cups sugar | |
| 2 eggs, lightly beaten | |

Blend the cocoa with half of the boiling water until smooth, stir in remaining water and cool. Sift together the flour, baking soda, baking powder and salt; set aside.

Cream the butter and sugar until light; add 3 tablespoons of the cocoa mixture and beat until fluffy. Beat in the eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition.

Alternately fold the dry ingredient and cocoa into the butter mixture. The mixture may be slightly curdled.

Grease and line one 9" round layer pan. Bake in a preheated 350° oven until set in the center (about 30 minutes). Leave in pans 5 minutes, invert onto a rack to cool.

Stir the melted chocolate into the buttercream. Cut the cake in half to form two semicircles, sandwich the halves together with some of the frosting. Place the cake cut side down and form the nose by cutting a diagonal, pointed shape at one end of the cake. Cover the cake with the buttercream. Smooth the frosting over the nose and face; fork lines from front to back over the rest of the "porcupine." Insert the slivered almonds along the back for the quills. Eyes and nose (your choice!).

Buttercream Frosting

Beat the butter until very light and smooth. Add the sugar and beat until fluffy. Add the egg white, beating until smooth. Add the vanilla.

Submit chocolate porcupine on white paper plate, wrapped in plastic wrap or a baggie.

Sugar Free Blueberry Coffee Cake

Combine 3 cups of flour & baking powder; stir into the wet ingredients until just blended. Fold in the blueberries. Spread evenly in the prepared pan.

In a small bowl, stir together the brown sugar substitutes, ¾ cup of flour, and cinnamon. Stir in the softened butter with a fork until the mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle over the top of the cake. Bake for 35 to 40 minutes.
